FIELD NOTES

Have partner. Will win. That seems to be the case for Virginia Golf Hall of Famer Keith Decker, who won this championship with a third different partner in 2024. Decker won three times with Pat Tallent, teamed with Roger Newsom to win in 2020, and partnered with Scott Shingler to win last year. Decker turned 65 last month and will compete in both senior and super senior events this year. Should he and Shingler successfully defend their title, Decker would move into a tie for second all-time in Senior Four-Ball wins with Bob Moyers with six.

- Buck Brittain and Jon Hurst fell short in their bid for four consecutive Senior Four-Ball titles last year, but they're back together for this year's event.
- Carlos Aranda and Danny Derisio are back together this year after Derisio missed last year's event with an injury. The pair posted the low qualifying round this year, scorching Bull Run GC with a 61.
- Keep an eye on 2019 champions Bob Bailey and Robert Nussey, who rallied from behind with a second-round 59 to win that year at Wintergreen Resort.
- The brother tandem of Steve and Jay Serrao have won the last two VSGA Senior Multi-Format Team Championships but have yet to break through for a win in this event.
- The side of Jonathan Gibb and J.R. Showalter is host club Orchard Creek's lone representative in the field.
- Other past champions in the field, playing with different partners than in their wins, are Cam Young (2018) and Pete DeTemple (2016). Young (won with Steve Serrao) is teaming with David Jordan, and DeTemple (won with Mike Krulich) is playing with Dean Griffith.
