USGA EXEMPTION EVENT

For the first time, the winner of the VSGA Junior Stroke Play Championship will earn automatic qualification into the 2024 U.S. Junior Amateur Championship, which will be held July 22-27 at Oakland Hills CC in Michigan. Four players in the Junior Stroke Play field have already qualified for the U.S. Junior Amateur: Neil Kulkarni, Ethan Evans, Jake Albert, and Jake Lopes. If any of those four win the title, no additional exemption will be awarded.

The VSGA Junior Stroke Play Championship has been a harbinger of success for many players, who either ended up on Division I rosters or later found success in the VSGA Amateur Championship. The 2024 VSGA Amateur champion, Logan Reilly, will not be at The Federal Club, but for good reason, as he'll be participating in the AJGA's Wyndham Cup, an all-star event featuring the nation's top juniors playing in East vs. West matches. There are still plenty of top juniors in the field, including Jake Albert (right).

- There are seven players in the top 200 of the AJGA national boys rankings participating: Albert (31), Brandon Sipe (102), Xander Goboy (112), Benjamin Baker (143), Trey Marrion (156), Uzair Mirza (183), and Major Ewing (198).
- Fun trivia: Though Reilly won't join this group this year, there are six players who have won both VSGA Amateur and VSGA Junior Stroke Play titles: Mark Lawrence Jr., Jake Mondy, Brinson Paolini, Mark Lawrence Sr., Curtis Strange, and Lanny Wadkins. Paolini was the only player to win both in the same year, doing so in 2008.
- Four players who won individual high school state championships in 2023-24 are participating. Owen Love (VHSL 6A, Edison), Baker (VHSL 5A Briar Woods), Goboy (VISAA Division 1, Catholic, co-champ with Reilly), and Luke Libbey (VISAA Division 3, New Covenant).
- One player who made a surge up the AJGA rankings is Elijah Felty, who jumped 1,258 spots to No. 250 after winning the AJGA Hunstville Junior last week.
